

Greening the High Street

• Provide seating and planting – a barrier from the traffic

• Parklets normally take a parking space but we are proposing to put them on the pavement.

• Two potential locations on the northern, sunny side of the street where the pavements are wide.

• There is currently very little seating in the High Street.