

Head of Clinical Practice

Job Outline

To lead on the development of clinical approaches to social work practice across family services. To teach, supervise and support clinical and social work staff in their practice and to work directly with children, young people and their families. To be a part of the Family Services Leadership Team.