Subject: Basement review

Dear Sirs,

I am writing to reassert my objections to the ever increasing number of basement developments – the one built around me by my neighbours entailed me having to move out of my home for nearly 6 months due to the extensive damage it caused.

I believe that the Council has undertaken an extremely thorough consultation on this vexed issue which upholds the conclusions that most residents have come to – that basements have an extremely deleterious effect on neighbouring properties. The one done around me caused me severe health problems to name but a few.

I believe that the Council has consulted properly, and that its proposals are sound.

Yours faithfully,

Maria Rita Phillips
