The Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea

Information Systems Strategist

Job Outline

Main Purpose of the Job

To ensure that the Council gets value for money from its IT spending by identifying future trends in IT that will impact how the Council does business, and matching that against the evolving business requirements of the Council over the same time frame.

Key Accountabilities

- Research and advise on IT futures
- Research and advise on how Council business futures can be supported by the new technologies
- Carry out projects around innovation arising from the above

Staff Directly Managed
0

Budget Responsibility 2011/12