You can help us even more at no extra cost. As a charity, we can reclaim an extra 28 pence (at current rates) from the Inland Revenue for every pound donated by you.

- Yes, I wish the Friends of Leighton House to treat all donations I have made for the six years prior to this year, and all donations I make from the date of this declaration until I notify you otherwise, as Gift Aid donations. I am currently paying an amount of UK income tax and/or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax reclaimed by Friends of Leighton House (currently 28p for each £1 that I give) and was in prior tax years, if applicable. I shall notify the Friends if the situation changes.

- No, I am not a UK tax payer and Gift Aid is not applicable.

Two Remarkable Houses in Kensington

One of the most extraordinary buildings of the nineteenth century, Leighton House is a jewel of the East in West London.

Leighton House, built from 1865, is the former home of Frederic, Lord Leighton, the great Victorian artist, and is a unique venue for the understanding and appreciation of Victorian art. Alongside paintings, drawings and sculptures by Lord Leighton, the Museum houses works by other artists of the period, including Burne-Jones, De Morgan and Watts.

From 1875, Linley Sambourne House, 18 Stafford Terrace, was the home of Punch cartoonist Edward Linley Sambourne, his wife Marion, their children and servants.

Originally decorated by the Sambournes in keeping with fashionable Aesthetic principles, the interiors evolved into wonderfully eclectic artistic statements. Remarkably well-preserved and complete with its original interior decoration and contents, it is a unique time capsule of late Victorian middle-class taste.

Support Us

The Friends play an important role in the life and work of the Houses. The funds they raise go towards developing and preserving all aspects of Leighton House and Linley Sambourne House, thus furthering the appreciation of Victorian art and social history and bringing them to a new generation through educational events.
